- The Chair welcomed everyone and declared the meeting open at 18:30hrs.

2.0 Agenda Item 2 Declaration of Interest

- There were no declarations of interest.
- Resolved: To note and record accordingly.

3.0 New Website.

- The Chair reminded members that the Sub Committee had been asked by the Council to progress the matter of a new website by meeting with two recommended contractors specialising in Town and Community Council Websites.
- The purpose of the meeting was to gather information from the two contractors and advise the Council on the way forward.
- Accordingly, Mr Daniel Hillier from Vision ICT gave a presentation to members on the services the company provided followed by a Question-and-answer session. The Chair thanked Mr Hillier for his attendance at the meeting and for the information provided. Mr Hillier left the meeting at this point.
- Mr Mark Tomkins from Aubergine 212 gave a presentation outlining the services which the company could provide for the Council together with an indication of costs. Following the presentation there followed a very useful question and answer session.
- Resolved:
 - (i) It was noted that both parties had identified a 6-week block requirement to undertake the work.
 - (ii) The current data e.g. minutes would need to be reviewed and amended to comply with legislation.
 - (iii) To recommend to the Council that having regard to the time requirements, and the current ongoing projects, that the development be postponed for the present time.
 - (iv) The Clerk and members review the documentation held on the current website and remove as many as were not required.
 - (v) That members look at examples of websites of other Councils in Wales.

5.0 Closure of Meeting.

- The Chair thanked members for their attendance and for their help in progressing the matter.
- There being no further business the Chair declared the meeting closed at 21.15hrs.
